FANS SPEAK OUT

The Hulkster's still causing lots of controversy!

TWO-FACED HOGAN

Dear WRESTLING ALL-STARS:

What is this with Hulkmania? I'll admit I liked Hogan when I first started watching wrestling two years ago, but lately, I have noticed Hulk becoming spiteful and childish. He holds onto that belt as if it were a gift from God. Paul Orndorff did all the work, then Hulk would strut in and pin a nearly unconscious opponent, and receive all the applause!

I saw Hogan on Friday Night Videos, and he insulted Joan Rivers and his fellow wrestlers. He even insisted that Joan had a terrible body odor, and that after acting friendly toward her! For heaven's sake, if he's going to say unkind things about a person, he should be man enough not to pretend he's that person's friend—like he did with Paul Orndorff.

It's my opinion that Paul is sorry for what he did to Hogan (although the creep deserved it!), but he has a quick temper. If you've been watching him, you would have seen Adrian Adonis and his gang razzing Paul until he reached his breaking point—and then Hulk refused to talk to him?!!

One more thing. On Saturday Night's Main Event, sexy Roddy Piper saved Hulk's hide by attacking Adrian Adonis with a crutch. After Roddy cleared out the ring, Hulk tried to attack him, and later commented that he'd never trust Roddy.

That man is two-faced and wishy-washy. Keep your eye on him and you'll see I'm right!

The Midnight Express – are these guys the true champs?

MORE R-N-R!

Dear WRESTLING ALL-STARS:

I read your magazine a lot and it is very good. I was wondering if you could put some more articles of the Rock-n-Roll Express in it. I'm a big fan of theirs and I think they are excellent wrestlers. Here's a little poem I wrote.

The Rock-n-Roll Express
Truly are the best.
With fans behind them all the way,
They're getting better day by day,
They're the best looking guys around,
Which is why it's so hard to pin them down!

Becky Watts
Stevans Draft, VA

HUMBLING HOGAN

Dear WRESTLING ALL-STARS:

I totally disagree with the Hulk Hogan fan who wrote in to say that wrestling would go downhill fast, if he should ever leave the scene.

First of all, wrestling would not decline. Secondly, he's not the best wrestler—he's all show, and thirdly, Hulk's critics are not jealous—the simple truth is that there are a lot of other wrestlers out there who are deserving of more cheers than Hogan.

I will be the first to cheer when he loses the belt.

Michelle McIntosh
Keenesburg, CO

LOTS ON HIS MIND

Dear WRESTLING ALL-STARS:

I can't believe how the Rock-n-Roll Express stole the Tag Team Title away from the Midnight Express (the true Tag Team Champs!) I was shocked to see the ref showing favoritism—it was a fast count!

Also, I'd like to say something about "Spazum TA..." How could that idiot lose the US Title to that Russian? He is the ultimate wimp!

I'm glad America's new heart throb beat the stuffings out of TA. By the way, America's new heart throb is Jimmy Garvin, and I was shocked when TA spanked the best valet ever—Precious! He should be suspended.

Lastly, I'm happy "Dusty Toads" lost Baby Doll. She looks a lot better with Ric Flair. As for the WWF, Hulk "the Chumpster" Hogan is going to be destroyed by Paul Mr. Wonderful Orndorff. He is going to lose that title!

Joseph Piantadosi
New Hyde Park, NY

2+2 IS GREATER THAN 4!

Dear WRESTLING ALL-STARS:

Regarding the letter in your November 1986 issue, where Ralph M wrote that the Road Warriors should team with the Rock-n-Roll Express to put the Four Horsemen down for the count—I could not agree more! This combination of talent would shut them up for good! Not one of the Horsemen can out-muscle either of the Warriors, nor outmaneuver one of the Rock-n-Roll'ers.

I would also like to say that the Warriors and Express shouldn't accept Rhodes' help. I don't care how much he wants the Horsemen, with the combined talents of the Warriors and the R-n-R, Dusty's help simply is not needed.

Len Minerva
Selden, NY

Hey Flair—Joseph P. thinks you deserve Baby Doll's support more than Rhodes did!

LARRY ZBYSZKO

"Do I have to kill someone to get a title bout?!!"

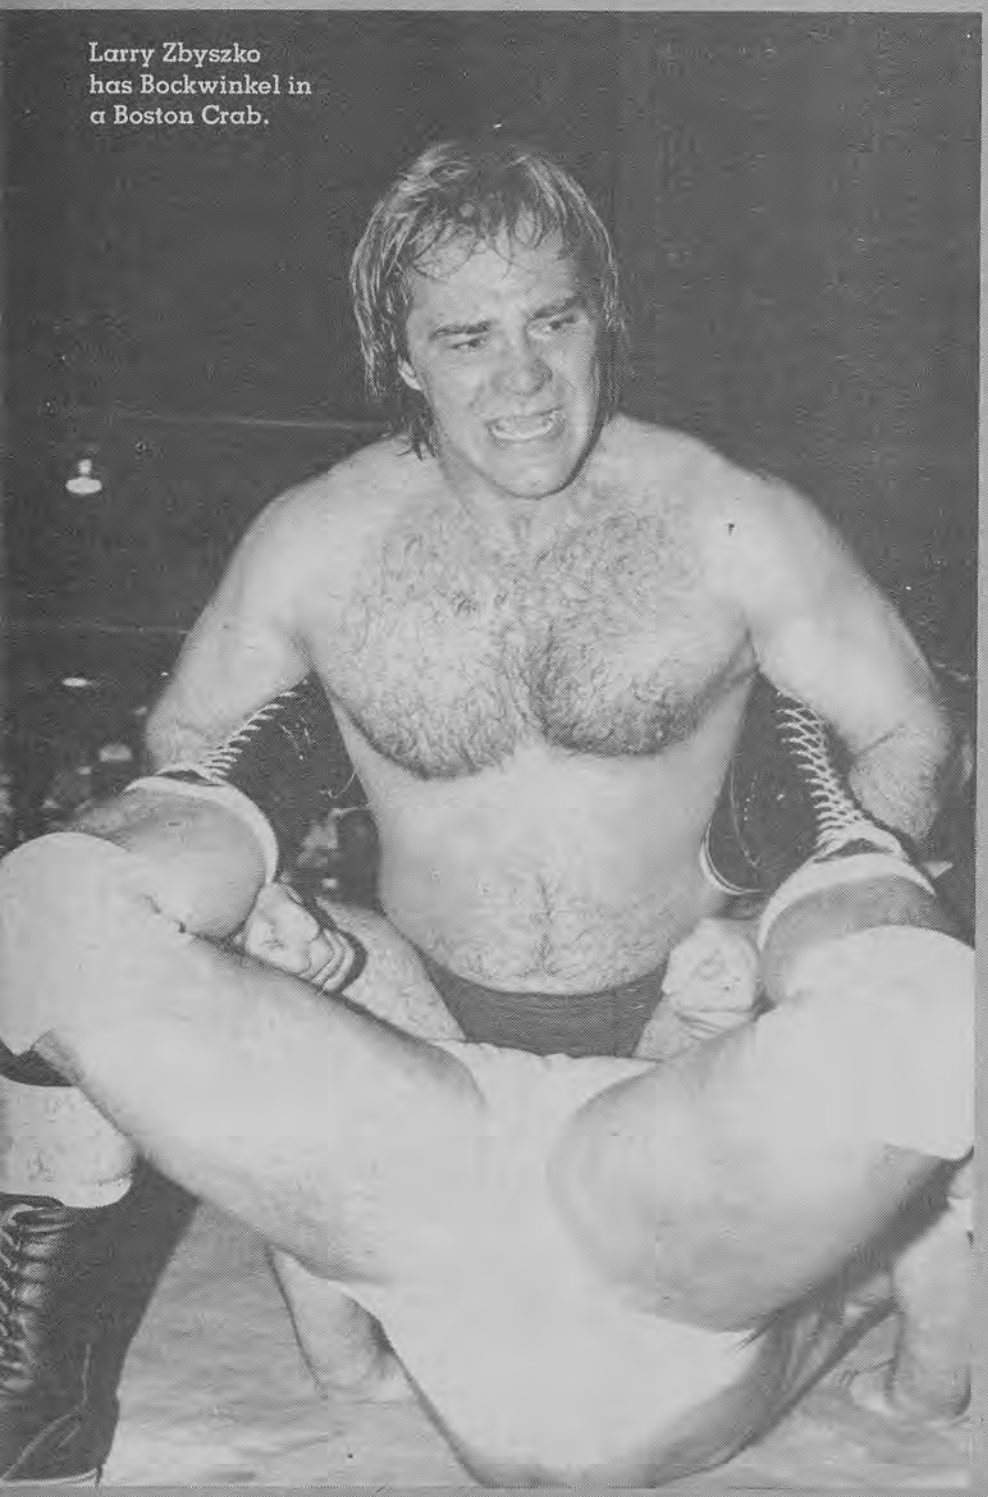
By GEORGE NAPOLITANO



Larry Zbyszko has Bockwinkel in a Boston Crab.

Confidence is everything in professional sports. Without it—you're a loser even before you begin. The self proclaimed "Living Legend" Larry Zbyszko, however, is so cocky that it's downright sickening. Zbyszko constantly whines and cries about his tremendous ability and lack of adequate competition, when in fact the Legend has yet to really put it all together and win a major title in years.

The last time Larry Zbyszko held a championship title was in 1983. Zbyszko, however, didn't win the title by conventional means. He bought the championship from Killer Brooks after the Killer defeated "Mr. Wonderful" Paul Orndorff. Zbyszko paid Brooks $20,000 for the rights to the National belt. The Killer, however, didn't care. He was Zbyszko's paid bounty hunter and he merely carried out his mission.

The outcry was tremendous. After a two month lapse, NWA president Bob Geigel stripped Zbyszko of the title and he has yet to win a title since. To his credit, Zbyszko has held two other titles in his career. In the early seventies, "The Legend," along with Tony Garea, were the WWF tag team champions. And, during his tenure as National champion, Zbyszko was considered the IWA champion. That's it! When you consider all the bragging Zbyszko does, one would assume he's been champion for years. But that's not quite the case.

"The man is the best campaign manager we've ever heard," states AWA champion, Nick Bockwinkel. "He certainly knows how to talk a good fight. I will say that he does possess a world of talent, but unfortunately, talent alone is not enough in this business. You have to think, stay cool, and never lose your head. That's where Larry Zbyszko beats himself. His temper always gets the best of him."

Of late, Zbyszko has been clamoring for a championship bout against Nick Bockwinkel. Zbyszko's reasoning was valid. "I've beaten every bum around," the self proclaimed legend related. "Yet they still matched me against guys like Greg Gagne, Curt Henning, Scott Hall. Do I have to kill someone to get a championship bout? The poor AWA fans need a champion they can cheer. They need someone they can relate to. Yet, Stanley Blackburn and his associates have simply refused to match me against their psuedo-champion, Nick Bockwinkel. It's a scam! They know I should have the belt. I should have been awarded the title and not Bockwinkel. But they felt sorry for the old man. They knew he could never win the belt on his own so they gave it to him. Now they're trying to keep me from getting it."

Finally, after all his griping and complaining, the AWA awarded Zbyszko a title match. Hearing the news, Zbyszko was thrilled. "It's about time," the braggart responded. "Now I can finally get what's due me."

Nick Bockwinkel appeared first and the "Legend" quickly followed him into the ring. Everyone was expecting Zbyszko to attack Bockwinkel before the bell, but he merely stood in center ring and kept his cool. Finally, after the referee's instructions, both men moved out. Bockwinkel took the initiative with a reverse arm bar and take down. The champ held on for several minutes, with Zbyszko squirming to break free. Finally, Zbyszko made it to the ropes, forcing the referee to break the hold.

Now it was Zbyszko's turn, and

Larry Zbyszko takes a moment to collect himself—after being thrown out of the ring by Bockwinkel.

Zbyszko "helps" Bockwinkel up, by grabbing a fistful of his hair.

Zbyszko wanted his shot at the Champ – and he got more than he bargained for.

he came back with a vengeance. Pushing Bockwinkel into a corner, Zbyszko kicked him in the mid section and kneed him in the face. Then, the action quickly moved outside the ring with Zbyszko still in control. Finally, the champ rallied and sent Zbyszko crashing head-first into the table.

"I'm the champion you've been waiting for!"
—Larry Zbyszko

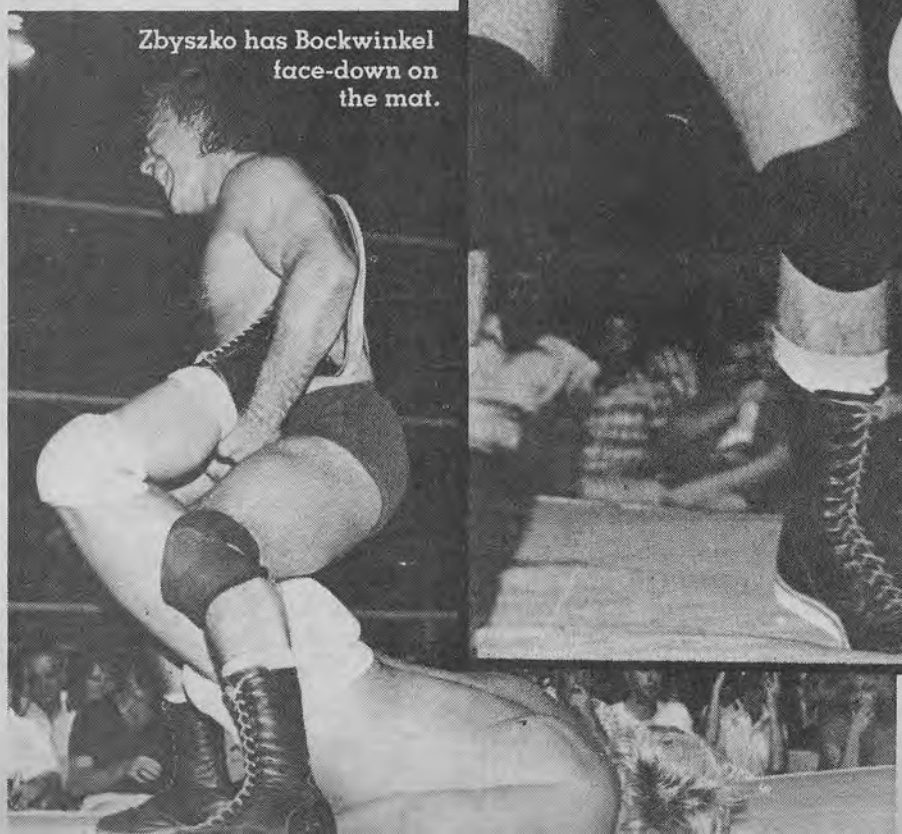
The challenger was now momentarily stunned, and Bockwinkel kept pounding away. After battling outside for several minutes, both made it back inside the squared circle, where Zbyszko caught Bockwinkel in a Boston Crab. The challenger pulled back on Bockwinkel's legs with all his might but then Bockwinkel showed why he has been champion so long, when he bridged up, forcing Zbyszko to fall back. The champ now took the initiative and in an instant executed a stunning reverse pinning technique.



Zbyszko has Bockwinkel face-down on the mat.

Bockwinkel is about to introduce Larry Zbyszko's face to Bockwinkel's knee!

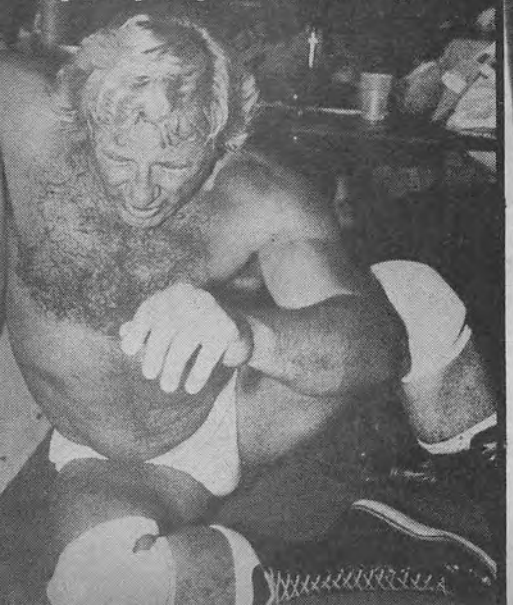
The Karate Master was smug before the start of the action.

Bockwinkel retained the title, but Zbyszko put up one hell of a fight.



Zbyszko didn't know what hit him! At the count of three, Nick Bockwinkel had successfully defended his AWA crown!

"I was robbed, I was robbed!" Zbyszko screamed. "Another fast count!" The challenger muttered this over and over again, but it was too late. Larry Zbyszko, the self proclaimed "Legend" had come up short once again.

Will Larry Zbyszko ever become champion? It could happen, but by the looks of things he may have to spend some money and buy another title because it doesn't appear that he will ever win one inside the ring. ★

CHRIS CHAMPION

NWA fans' new darling!

Chris Champion holds the Bahama Islands Championship.

He is known as Chris Champion, and the youngster is very aptly named, as he is the proud owner of the Bahama's Heavyweight title. Although the Bahama's title is not the most prestigious belt in the country, it is a championship nevertheless.

Many people are probably wondering who Chris Champion is? Chris has been wrestling professionally for three years, and spent the entire time wrestling for the IWA, an independent promotion based in Florida. Growing up, Chris was fond of athletics and excelled in all sports, with his favorite being wrestling. Chris learned the basics of the sport from several friends, who at the time were wrestling for the IWA.

After six months of training and traveling with his buddies, Chris made his professional debut. Although the crowds were sparse and the pay small, Chris didn't mind. He felt that this was the easiest way to break into the profession. Chris continued to wrestle for three years with the IWA,. honing his skills until he felt confident enough to try his luck elsewhere. He was resigned to go to the Northwest when someone told him to give the NWA Florida office a call. He did, but they were not too responsive at first. They did, however, take his number, and one week late, called when they needed a replacement to fill one of the spots on the card. Chris jumped at the chance to showcase his immense talents in the NWA.

Picking out his most colorful tights and matching boots, Chris headed to the arena. Needless to say, he was an immediate hit and has been on the circuit ever since. "I knew I was ready when I made the call," Chris related. "I spent three years wrestling night after night, learning my trade, but I felt I had nothing more to gain by continuing to wrestle in the IWA. It was, however, a great place for me at the time, because it gave me the confidence, poise and experience, to step in and be the success I am now.

a frame that's just under six feet. He prefers conventional wrestling holds and moves for his bouts, but he is also adept at flying maneuvers. He is cocky, arrogant and self assured and this attitude has not endeared him to the fans. Yet due to his handsome features and well developed physique, he's beginning to acquire a loyal female following.

"I don't care whether they boo me or cheer me," Chris stated. "They have to take me for what I am. But I will say that I feel that there's no one better than me. I could wrestle by the book, stretch the rules if I have to, but no matter what I do, my hand always gets raised up high."

Certainly no one ever expected

Chris Champion is finding it easy to live up to his majestic name.

Chris Champion to step right in and do as well as he has. In one of his first bouts in the area, Champion traveled to Nassau in the Bahamas, and there defeated Tyree Pride for the Bahama's championship. "That was the biggest match in my career to date," Chris assures. "But I'm positive that I will win many more championships before I call it a career."

Chris Champion has all the tools to go very far in the wrestling profession. He's one of the young, gifted and talented wrestlers on which the future of this great profession depends. With such an auspicious start, Chris Champion seems destined to win many more championships in the wrestling profession. ★

MARTEL & MONTEGAS

Fighting for the belt!

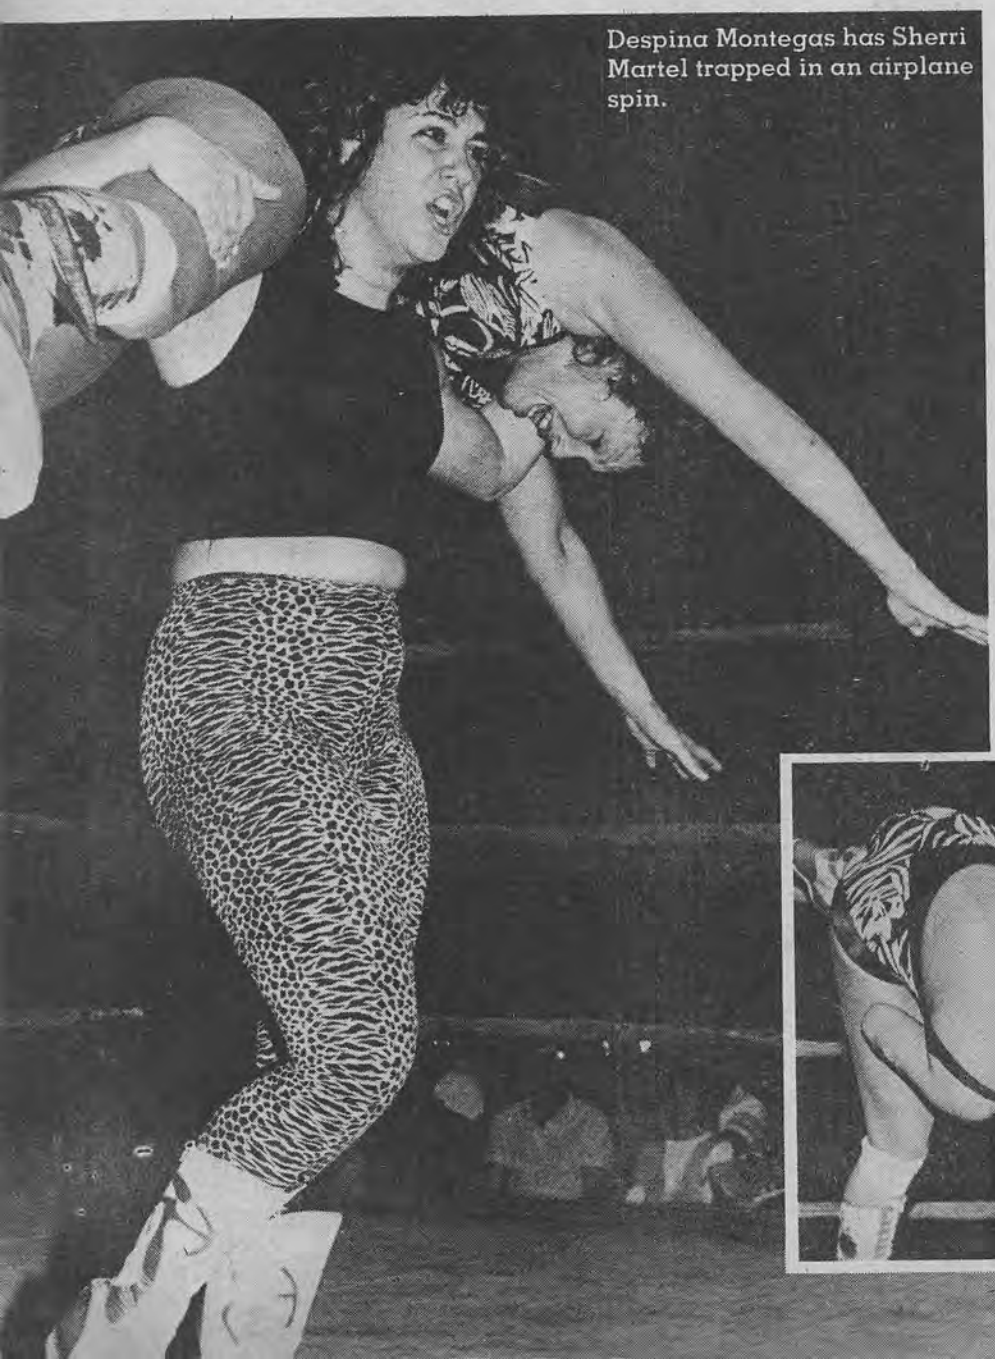
Sherri Martel is one tough lady. Besides being spokeswomen for the AWA World's tag team champions Buddy Rose and Doug Sommers, Ms. Martel is an accomplished wrestler in her own right. In 1981, Ms. Martel learned the basics of the sport from the world renowned Fabulous Moolah, and in the ensuing years Sherri has carved out quite a niche of her own.



Despina Montegas has Sherri Martel trapped in an airplane spin.

The crowning achievement of Ms. Martel's career occurred in September 1985, when she defeated the talented Candi Devine for the Women's World title. Since then, Martel has traveled the world over in defense of her crown, with her most recent defenses coming in Japan.

Back on the home front, however, Sherri has been facing stiff competition from another wild woman, Despina Montegas. Despina, like Martel, was also trained by the Fabulous Moolah, and the Greek Godess is every bit as tough as the Women's champion. Several times in the past few months Despina has battled Sherri Martel for the crown, and each match has been a fight to the finish. In fact, in their brawl in Asbury Park, N.J. Despina battered the champ at will. She caught her in a bear hug, a back breaker, a flying body press and then even sent Sherri sailing to the mat with a devastating suplex.

Despina flips Martel to the mat.

Ms. Martel chokes away at the Greek Goddess.

What started out as a little shoving erupted into a violent brawl.

A vicious body slam sends Martel crashing to the mat.

Martel tries to put the lights out on Montegas.

Martel employs a reverse pin on Despina Montegas to win their brutal match.

But to Sherri's credit it must be noted that the champ took all of Despina's best shots and still was able to retaliate with her own brand of mayhem.

After twenty-five minutes of all-out war, the match came to a screeching halt when Sherri surprised Despina with a reverse roll up and pin, after catching her challenger from behind. For Despina it was a devastating loss, but one which showed that the Greek Godess has what it takes to someday wear the crown.

"She had me tonight," Despina moaned after her near-win, "but I still feel confident about my chances. I was able to do anything I wanted with her and I know that someday soon the Women's World title will be mine."

For now, Sherri Martel is still riding high but she better be wary of Despina Montegas. The Greek Goddess has the moves to upset the queen. ★

All hell broke loose when Moolah's two former proteges fought it out for the belt!

Martel's hand is raised high in victory, following her exhausting struggle with Greek Goddess Montegas.

SUPERFLY HAS THE LAST LAUGH

"They thought I was through!"

By DAVID THOMAS

It's great to see "The Superfly," Jimmy Snuka, flying high again. It's been six months since Jimmy Snuka came out of his self-imposed exile, and the high flying Snuka looks as good as ever.

The Island King is set to fly again.

"Brother, I feel great. I've been working out hard and I'm in the best shape of my life," the Superfly related. "The best part about it, brother, is that certain people thought I was through. They said I was washed up. They called me a has-been. This hurt, but I was at fault. I stayed in Hawaii and did nothing to make the people think differently."

While relaxing in Hawaii, Snuka managed to wrestle on a few occasions, but his bouts were few and far between. "Hey, I just wanted to relax," Snuka claimed. "I had lost all my desire."

Although he lost his desire, Snuka never lost any of his incredible skill. He did, however, manage to go to the gym once a week, and this, combined with the much-needed rest, did his body good.

"I knew he was getting restless, laying on the beach everyday, soaking up the sun," Greg Gagne remarked. "Actually a few of the boys met Snuka in Hawaii on their return trip from Japan, and he asked them how things were back in the states. They said he looked like he really wanted to get back in the groove. As soon as they told me this, I went to the phone and called him up. I asked him to come and help me fight Sheik Adnan El Kassey's army."

After giving it some thought, Snuka agreed to go to Minnesota to help Gagne out. "Brother, I really didn't know what to do. I had become content to sit at home and not be bothered by anyone, but something told me it was time to get back in the groove."

Zuchoff and Snuka square off center ring.

The patented Superfly leap takes Zuchoff out of action.

Needless to say, the Greg Gagne-Superfly Snuka combination made short work of the Sheik's duo of Bruiser Brody and the Barbarian, with the winning move coming on a sensational Superfly leap onto the stunned Barbarian. Right then it was obvious that the Superfly was back to stay!

Still, as good as he looked, Snuka did not want to commit himself to a full time commitment. He agreed, however, to give it a few more fries before making up his mind. Then, after the Superfly did his thing in Milwaukee, Chicago and Denver he was hooked!

"Although I never met the man before," Scott Hall related, "Just watching him in action you could tell he was psyched, from the moment he stepped into the ring. You simply can't walk away from something if you have that much intensity." Scott Hall's remarks were right on the money, as the Superfly is once again the talk of the wrestling scene.

"Hey, it was a tough decision,"

Fighting bad guys like Larry Zbyszko has put the fire back into the Superfly's heart.

the Superfly admitted, "but I know I made the right moves. I've wanted to do this for a while, but something kept holding me back. I knew there were people out there who cared about Superfly Snuka and wanted to see me, but I was fed up with all the nonsense and the games. I had nothing more to prove. I was on top and left while still on top, and the people couldn't understand how I could walk away from it all. Well, brother, I didn't walk away from anything. I wasn't treated right, and a lot of people know that this is true. After a while, anyone will get fed up with petty mind games. I did, and I walked. Now I'm the better man for it. I can live with myself, and all these negative vibes are in the past. I had a good run. The people still talk about me and brother, I ain't through yet."

Since his trial run in the AWA, the Superfly has been a regular on the AWA circuit. He's wrestled in singles bouts against Boris Zuchoff, Mr. Go, Larry Zbyszko, and Col. DeBeers. And, he has successfully teamed with Greg Gagne, Johnny Rich and Scott Hall. Whether in tag team matches or in singles encounters, the Superfly has looked incredible. The moves are right on the money. His strength is second to none. His incredible Superfly leap is still a wonder to behold. With all these things going for him, the Superfly should continue to fly high for a long time.★

LEX LUGER

"I'll bring Flair to his knees!"

Since bursting onto the wrestling scene a little more than a year ago, Lex Luger has certainly left a solid impression on the minds of the fans. When he first broke into the sport, Luger had size and bulk, but he definitely lacked the mobility, speed, quickness and moves needed to become a superstar. Today, however, Luger can do it all. The progress the muscular Luger has made in one year's time is simply incredible.

"I owe it all to the great teachers I had," Luger confesses. "Guys like Hiro Matsuda, Bob Roop, and Barry Windham have worked with me constantly, teaching me the finer points of the game. They've taught me holds and moves I never knew existed, but besides that, they taught me how to think in the ring. I've learned that size and strength alone doesn't mean a thing when you're facing a man who really knows how to wrestle. A quick move or two neutralizes all your strength, rendering you powerless to do anything. This is what separates the champions from the challengers."

By his own admission, Lex Luger feels he was extremely lucky to get as far as he did early in his career. "I was lucky, I guess, when I first started out, but actually, it was bad for me because it made me think I was better than I was. I didn't want to listen to anyone's advice, because I thought I knew it all. It seemed strange to me to see guys like Barry Windham, Bob Roop, Kevin Sullivan, Steve Keirn and others sitting outside their dressing rooms, and watching match after match. I couldn't understand why they were wasting their time looking at other bouts. I had better things to do with my time, like sleeping, reading, playing cards. Now I know why they were out there, while I sat inside the dressing room wasting my time doing nothing productive."

Is this the physique that launched a thousand ships?

Luger refuses to let go, as Kareem is on the verge of capitulating.

During the first few months of his career, Luger relied exclusively upon his strength to win his bouts. Eventually, he became more fluid and started to rely more on wrestling techniques than physical prowess. All the while, Hiro Matsuda continued to train with his protege, teaching him the ins and outs of the profession.

For the first several months of his new career, Luger was looked upon as a villain. The fans booed him unmercifully, for taking short cuts to victories. Eventually however, due to his undeniable sex appeal, the fans began to look upon Luger in a new light, and it didn't take long before the boos turned to cheers. Once they did, Luger took up residency in the good guys' dressing room, and has been cheered ever since. After becoming a fan favorite, Barry Windham befriended Lex Luger, and the two have been inseparable ever since.

"Barry Windham has been a very positive influence on my career. He's been around for seven years and he knows the ins and outs of the business. He's traveled all over the world, won titles everywhere he wrestled and has been a success his entire career. In the last six months I've learned more from him than I would have had I wrestled for ten years somewhere else."

Since emerging as the number one man in Florida, Lex Luger has held the Bahama's championship, the Television championship, the Florida championship, and the prestigious Southern belt. In effect, Lex Luger has done it all.

During the past few months, Lex Luger has been hard at work battling noted rulebreakers Kendo Nagasaki, Ron Bass, Kareem Muhammed and Ed "The Bull" Gantner, over his Southern belt. Although each challenger has been tough, the sensational Luger still has the Southern belt in his possession.

Besides these men, Luger has also wrestled NWA World's

An elbow to the back sends Kareem flying.

Luger is ecstatic after his victory.

No one is more popular in the Sunshine State than Lex Luger.

champion Ric Flair to two one hour draws. In addition, he holds a victory over the champ, winning the only fall in their two of three fall match. During this bout, Luger appeared to be on the verge of beating the champ when Sir Oliver Humperdink's army interfered on Flair's behalf. Make no mistake about it, Lex Luger could be the man to dethrone the champion. Right now Lex Luger is one of the top five challengers for Flair's World's title, and his ability is likely to improve as time goes by.

It's rare when someone comes along with credentials like Lex Luger's, but that's the nature of the sport. If the powerful Luger continues to progress the way he has in the past year, then the World's title could be his for the asking. ★

The Mighty Igor has been wrestling professionally for more years than he cares to remember, yet the original Polish sensation is still one of the toughest wrestlers around. For the past three decades, the Mighty Igor has been doing his thing, and in this time, Igor has wrestled the world over, winning titles, awards, and accolades everywhere he has appeared.

Lately, Igor has not been as active in the States as he has been in the past, but he still keeps himself very busy wrestling in such places as Nigeria, South Africa; Trinidad, Barbados and Puerto Rico. And, no matter when he appears, the fans are simply wild about Igor, and he in turn, has quite a love affair with the fans.

Not too long ago, Igor returned to Puerto Rico to participate in Capital Sports Promotions 13th Anniversary bash. Igor's opponent on the big card in Mayaguez, P.R. was none other than the wildman from Texas, Bruiser Brody. In his illustrious career, Igor has wrestled every top villain in the game. His battles against the Sheik, Dick the Bruiser, and Abdullah the Butcher are ring classics. For this reason, Igor knew exactly what he was getting himself into when he agreed to battle Bruiser Brody in Mayaguez.

Igor left his dressing room first and was accompanied by his Caribbean advisor, Miguel Perez. Walking to the ring, Igor waved happily to the huge crowd and stopped along the way to kiss admiring female fans. As Igor was going through his pre-match ritual, Bruiser Brody stormed out of his dressing room and headed straight for Igor. Brody caught Igor in the middle of the stadium and proceeded to batter him senseless with a chair that he grabbed.

Igor grapples with Brody, in a desperate attempt to wrest the chair away from him.

SLAM! The Mighty Igor gets a chair to the head – while he's shaking hands with a fan!

Igor's manager, Miguel Perez, takes the chair from Mighty Igor.

It took Igor several minutes to muster up the strength needed to retaliate, but after he did, Igor went berserk! Grabbing Brody around the back of his head, Igor pounded him into the railing that surrounded the ballpark. Soon both men were covered with blood—and the match had not even officially begun yet! Finally, the referee forced the two arch enemies into the ring, but no less than five minutes had elapsed when both men were fighting once again outside the ring.

Igor gives Brody a taste of his own medicine.

Brody tries to rip Igor's head off.

Although Bruiser Brody is known for his wild, aggressive behavior, the Mighty Igor took all of Brody's best shots and retaliated with quite a few of his own. But, by this time, the match was completely out of control and the referee had no recourse but to disqualify both men for fighting outside the ring. This however, had no effect whatsoever on the two grapplers, as they continued to tear into each other with a vengence. If several other wrestlers had not run in and separated the combatants, there's a chance they would still be going at it!

Mighty Igor is the original Polish sensation!

"What can I say?" Igor inquired after the grueling bout. "I gave it my best shot, but he was looking for a war. I've wrestled his kind many, many times before, and I know exactly what to do when facing a man like him. Next time I would love to fight him fair and square, to show the people what I really can do." ★

Mighty Igor exacts some revenge, with a choke hold on Brody.

Bruiser Brody rakes Igor's face by the ropes.

The two wrestlers finally make their way to the ring.

WRESTLING AROUND THE U.S.A.

WWF
CHAMPION: HULK HOGAN
INTERCONTINENTAL CHAMPION:
RANDY "MACHO MAN" SAVAGE
TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
BRITISH BULLDOGS

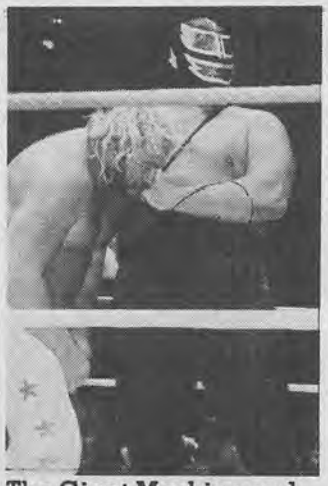
WWF action has been wilder than ever in the last few weeks. First of all, "Rowdy" Roddy Piper is back and he's now being cheered although he is still as arrogant and boastful as ever. Piper is feuding with "Mr. Wonderful" Paul Orndorff and the Magnificent Muraco.

Rick Martel and Tom Zenc have entered the area after a successful stay in Montreal. Martel's return is a homecoming of sorts as he once held the WWF tag team title. Another new man in the area is Dino Bravo. The strongman, however, is being booed everywhere he appears.

Koko B. Ware



The Giant Machine and Big John Studd

Jim "The Anvil" Neidhart and Brett "Hit Man" Hart continue to look good in tag team action. Although the Hart foundation has had several unsuccessful battles against the British Bulldogs, Jimmy Hart's team could someday upset the champions.

King Kong Bundy continues with his winning ways. In a recent match in Madison Square Garden, Bundy pinned the Big Machine. After all the hype, the Machines have fizzled out.

The Rebel Dick Slater has been doing very well since invading the WWF.

Squaring off in a $50,000 tag team Battle Royal in Madison Square Garden were the teams of: The Moondogs; Jacques and Raymond Rougeau; Greg Valentine and Steven Little Wolf; The Hart Foundation; Mike Rotundo and S.D. Jones; The Islanders; Nikolai Volkoff and the Iron Sheik; the Killer Bees; the Machines; John Studd and King Kong Bundy; and the British Bulldogs. The first team eliminated was the Moondogs, while the last two teams were the Islanders and King Kong Bundy and Big John Studd. The winner in their action-packed thriller was the Islanders. King Kong Bundy accidentally knocked his partner Big John Studd out of the ring, leaving the Islanders to collect the $50,000. Look for the Islanders, Toma and Hauk, to challenge for the tag team crown.

"Macho Man" Randy Savage has not been having any trouble at all defending his Intercontinental championship. Even though the WWF has an over abundance of stars, the Macho Man has yet to meet his match.

Billy Jack Haynes better get his act together. The muscular Haynes is getting lost in the shuffle.

Where is Lou Albano? The loquacious manager has been conspicuously absent from the WWF scene.

The WWF has become a zoo, with Jake Roberts' snake, Koko B. Ware's bird, Steamboat's mongoose and the Bulldogs' bulldog—Mathilda, all who travel the circuit with their masters.

With all the other action taking place, champion Hulk Hogan has been having it easy. The Hulk's most recent challenge was "Mr. Wonderful" Paul Orndorff, but the Hulkster soundly trashed the Wonderful one on several different occasions.

BUDDY ROSE AND DOUG SOMMERS

Champion Nick Bockwinkel is being pursued by the self-proclaimed legend, Larry Zbyszko. Zybszko would love nothing better than to beat the cagey veteran and win the title.

The wildest action on the AWA is taking place on the tag team scene where the Midnight Rockers: Marty Jannetty and Shawn Michaels are in hot pursuit of the tag team champions; Buddy Rose and Doug Sommers.

New to the area is the 7'6" giant, Silo Sam. Sam could give Andre the Giant quite a challenge.

NWA WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING
NWA WORLD CHAMPION: RIC FLAIR
WORLD TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
THE ROCK-n-ROLL EXPRESS
U.S. CHAMPION: NIKITA KOLOFF
U.S. TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
IVAN KOLOFF AND KRUSHER KHRUSCHEV

World Championship Wrestling continues to excite everyone with its wild matches and top flight action. First of all the Russians—Ivan and Nikita Koloff and Krusher Khruschev—are taking over the U.S. Heavyweight title while "Uncle" Ivan and Krusher Khruschev are taking over the world. Nikita owns the U.S. Heavyweight title while "Uncle Ivan" and Krusher Kruschev have the U.S. tag team by virtue of their victory over the Kansas Jay Hawks: Dutch Mantel and Bobby Jaggers. The title was won in a tournament for the vacant championship.

The Rock-n-Roll Express are once again experiencing difficulties. During the summer, Ricky Morton was injured, and now it's Robert Gibson who's feeling the pain. Midnight Express manager Jim Cornette has repeatedly said that the Rock-n-Roll Express were too weak to be wrestlers. Maybe Cornette was right all along.

Superstar Bill Dundee and his protege "Nature Boy" Buddy Landell have been making quite a bit of noise in the NWA.

"Captain Redneck" Dick Murdoch is the latest man to challenge World champion, Ric Flair.

Dusty Rhodes and Tully Blanchard are feuding once again. It seems that these two will never settle their differences.

Ole and Arn Anderson have their act together again. The Minnesota natives are certain that they will win the World tag team title away from the Rock-n-Roll Express.

The Road Warriors and the Midnight Express are feuding. These two teams are scheduled to square off against each other in a scaffold match at Starcade III.

In closing, it's with deep regret that we report on the condition of Magnum T.A. As most people are aware, Magnum was involved in a near fatal car accident no less than two miles from his home in Charlotte. As we go to press Magnum is in serious but stable condition in a Charlotte hospital. Everyone throughout the wrestling scene is praying for Magnum's recovery.

Terry Gordy

UCW champion, Terry Gordy is being challenged by the one Man Gang and "Dr. Death" Steve Williams. Both have designs on Gordy's belt. Meanwhile, his Freebird brothers, Michael Hayes and Buddy Roberts have been battling it out with Ted DiBiase and Terry Taylor. After a wild "Country Whipping Match," Michael Hayes stole DiBiase's black glove and has been using it every chance he gets against DiBiase.

Savannah Jack has left Scandor Akbar's "Devestation, Inc." The break occured following a tag team match involving Savannah Jack and the One Man Gang and the new UWF favorites: Chris Adams and Iceman Parsons, when Akbar bawled out Jack for missing a tag. This led to words betwen the two and now Savannah Jack is on his own.

"Superkick" Chris Adams has challenged Terry Gordy for his UWF championship.

The Fantastics, and Sting and Gilbert continue to battle over the UWF tag team title. Gilbert is still enamored over Missy and has been giving the former socialite a box of candy everytime he sees her. Missy, however, is still true to Hollywood Johnny Tatum.

Dark Journey is still active on the scene as is her main man, The Missing Link.

CARIBBEAN CHAMPION:
ABDULLAH THE BUTCHER
NORTH AMERICAN TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
RON AND CHICKIE STARR
WWC WORLD'S TAG TEAM:
ROCK AND ROLL RPM'S

The RPM's

Champion Carlos Colon has been very busy of late, defending his Universal crown. In recent weeks Colon has successfully battled three former champions, Terry Funk, Dory Funk, and Stan Hansen. Colon's exploits usually go unnoticed, but the Puerto Rican is one of the toughest wrestlers around.

"Rambo" Ron Starr and the Invader are in the middle of a wild vendetta over the North American crown.

The Rock and Roll RPM's are the most popular team on the Island. The RPM's regained their tag team title with a sensational win over the Crazy Sheepherders in the Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan.

Wildmen Abdullah the Butcher and Bruiser Brody have also seen considerable action in Puerto Rico, Trinidad and Barbados.

Miguel Perez Jr. put up a good battle in his recent match against Ric Flair for the NWA crown. The young Perez has a very bright future ahead of him.

Another Perez, Al Perez is a hated rulebreaker throughtout the Caribbean. Mid South fans should remember Perez from his days of teaming with Wendall Cooley. At one time they were the Mid South tag team champions. Today Perez has changed his entire outlook and style.

NOTE: Although the WWC is not based in the U.S., due to the large number of U.S. grapplers that regularly appear in the Caribbean we will be including the WWC in our round-up.

KEVIN VON ERICH
TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
BUZZ SAWYER AND MATT BORNE
TEXAS CHAMPION: BUZZ SAWYER
SIX MAN TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS:
LANCE, MIKE AND KEVIN VON ERICH

Kevin Von Erich has finally won the World Class Heavyweight belt. The oldest Von Erich brother defeated Black Bart on October 12, at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Texas to win the prestigious title. As Kevin battled Bart, Kerry stood in his brother's corner on crutches watching the action. Kerry seemed just as happy as Kevin seeing his brother win the title.

Percy Pringle wrestled on the big card and surprisingly won the bout against newcomer Steve Doll.

Matt Borne and Buzz Sawyer continue to hold on to the tag team crown.

Dingo and Steve Simpson have joined forces in hopes of defeating Sawyer and Borne for the crown.

Wildman Abdullah the Butcher and his manager Gary Hart continue to feud with Bruiser Brody. Brody, meanwhile, has been getting assistance from Fritz Von Erich in these battles.

Brian Adidas would love to regain the Texas Heavyweight title. What has happened to Lance Von Erich? He hasn't been seen in quite some time.

NORTHWEST
NWA WORLD CHAMPION: RIC FLAIR
NORTHWEST TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS: ABUDADEIN AND MIKE MILLER

Rip Oliver still controls the Northwest with an iron hand. It looks alike the Ripper will never be beaten.

Another tough Northwest star is "Mean" Mike Miller. In his career, Miller has held every title in the Northwest.

Brady Boone and Scott Doring continue to improve.

Vinnie Valentino is now doing his thing in the Northwest. The popular Italian is still one of the best young wrestlers around.

Not too long ago, Bruiser Brody, the Road Warriors, Superfly Snuka and Rocky Johnson toured the Northwest. Hopefully they'll be back soon.
